

November 2023

Well, it's been a while. BUSY and crazy time in the world of legislation. Who knows, Ohio's Jim Jordan might become the new Speaker of the House! I hope everyone is enjoying these updates from the Legislative portion of your club! PLEASE, let me know what you like or don't like about this format.

Here we go:

ERA: Sometimes it's fun to read what the opposition is saying. It helps us understand the points we are trying to make and WHY we are trying to make them. Enjoy!

<https://www.washingtonexaminer.com/restoring-america/fairness-justice/oppose-the-revival-of-the-equal-rights-amendment>

Health: Diabetes is a challenge for many women (especially me) but did you know Type 2 can be especially dangerous for younger women, especially if you're thinking about starting a family. This short article gives you some information on why it's important to watch your numbers.

<https://www.cdc.gov/diabetes/library/features/diabetes-and-women.html>

Victims Rights: This is the official page for Attorney General David Yost. There is A LOT of information for those of you in the field or if you'd just like to get more information about victim's rights.

<https://www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/individuals-and-families/victims>

Finance: Do women need to save more for retirement than men? You betcha! Here are some helpful tips to save for retirement.

<https://www.theskimm.com/money/3-reasons-women-need-to-save-more-for-retirement>

Economic Equality: We all know abortion is a difficult decision but did you know the economic impact of NOT having that service available to women? This article examines the economic impact for all citizens when abortion is banned.

<https://www.hannah.com/DesktopDefaultPublic.aspx?type=hns&id=dKwML%2fKPzvA%3d&u=Pdmk%2bJlq9eg%3d>