

March 2024

ERA: Who says women do not make a difference. In this article from MSNBC, the ERA Coalition, made up of 300 independent groups (check them out) appeared on Morning Joe to talk about what the fashion industry and the ERA have in common. The article is a real eye opener.

MSNBC - The ERA

Health: What woman doesn't want to lose weight? I'm sure you've all heard of Wegovy and Ozempic. Yes, they are both relatively expensive, but are they for you. This is an interesting perspective that gives both sides of the story from Dr. Cecelia Low Wang, University of Colorado School of Medicine. Read it and see if it's for you!

Wegovy and Ozempic; the truth about new weight loss drugs.

Victims Rights: Because of the proximity of the Amish community, I was drawn to this article. I did not know that this issue had been brought before the Ohio Legislators.

Many Amish Children Do Not Go Beyond High School. One Woman Hopes to Change That

Finance: Have you heard of The Pink Tax? I had no idea what it was until recently and how it affected my economic future.

The Pink Tax

Economic Equality: If you are a homeowner, you probably have already received your property tax bill. It's nice when your property value goes up but then so do the taxes. Some Ohioians are getting taxed out of their own homes. What is the Ohio Legislature doing about it? Read this article and find out. Don't be shy about contacting your representative about this issue.

Property Tax Protection is Broken