

Dr. Vicki King-Maple is a Telly Award winning director, producer, and scriptwriter. She has produced hundreds of musical variety shows and talent competitions, including Voice of Ohio, Zanesville Has Talent, and the NBC-affiliate televised Y-City Star and Home for the Holidays productions. Dedicated to raising funds for Hospice & Palliative Care, Vicki co-directed and produced the Zaney Follies for several years, helping to raise one-million dollars for the cause. She has also been involved in the world's largest scholarship provider to women – the Miss America Organization – for nearly 30 years; first as an entertainer and contestant at the local and state level in Ohio; then as a local Director and Producer of 3 programs; and more recently on the executive team for Miss Ohio's Outstanding Teen. She also formerly owned and operated the Mrs./Miss/Teen Ohio International scholarship pageant system franchises. This past spring, she published the book, "The P's of Pageant Prep: Prepare for Your Pageant While Pursuing Your Personal and Professional Purpose." (Available on Amazon and at various boutiques.)

Vicki is also a vocalist with and manager of two vocal ensembles, PureHeart and Soul Legacy: performing at fairs, festivals, corporate affairs, and special events throughout the Midwest. She also starred in the musical theater production of Marvelous Wonderettes as Cindy Lou.

A former collegiate level instructor of Interpersonal Communication, Vicki is also an advocate of personal & professional development, having also served as a performance coach for over two decades with Dale Carnegie Training, emphasizing human relations, effective communications, and relational sales strategies. Vicki was a television news anchor and reporter in Ashland, OH, as well as a morning radio personality in Mansfield, OH, and a writer for a series of talent magazines with a column titled: Perky Positive Practical: Vicki! She travels as a motivational speaker and entertainer; works as a national senior director for an economic, workforce, & education consultancy (TPMA); and also serves as a consultant, trainer, presenter and professional business coach through the firm she founded, Revive with Vicki.

Vicki holds a Doctor of Educational Leadership Studies degree from Ashland University, where she also earned an undergraduate degree in Communications and Radio/Television Performance, Production and Programming, as well as a Masters Degree in Higher Education Administration. She also completed the Institute for Management & Leadership at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

The recipient of the BPW Woman of the Year Award for Zanesville-Muskingum County, Ohio and a variety of Educational and Workforce Development Program Excellence awards, Vicki resides in Nashport, OH with her husband, Homer, and their Shih Tzu puppies, Harley and Pebbles.

Dr. Vicki King-Maple